To

R. RANGA RAO, ESQ., B.A., B.L.,
Offg. Chief Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore.

SIR,

I beg to submit the following report in connection with recruitment to the subordinate ranks of the public service in Mysore during the year 1928-29.

The Central Recruitment Board.—The Third Member of Council continued to be the Chairman of the Central Recruitment Board throughout the year under report. The number of non-official members on the Board was increased from three to five. The Board met five times during the year and the average number of members present at the meetings was seven. The personnel of the Board is shown in Appendix I.

The Sub-Committee of the Central Recruitment Board.—The Sub-Committee appointed by Government for advising them on questions relating to exemptions from the rules of the Central Recruitment Board, met five times during the year. The personnel of the Sub-Committee is shown in Appendix II.

Strength of the establishment of the Office of the Secretary, Central Recruitment Board.—The post of one temporary Second Division Clerk sanctioned during the previous year for sorting and arranging the records of the office, was made permanent and two additional Second Division Clerks were sanctioned during the year under report to enable the office to cope with the increased work and correspondence and to exercise closer scrutiny of appointments made by the several appointing officers in the vacancies advertised through the Central Recruitment Board.

The sanctioned strength of the Superior Establishment of the Office of the Central Recruitment Board is as follows:—

One Second Grade Superintendent.	One Junior Steno-typist.
Two First Division Clerks.	Three Temporary Second Division Clerks.
Two Second Division Clerks.	One Mutchi.

Statistics of applications received and dealt with.—From 1st July 1928 to the 30th June 1929, 34,220 applications were received as against 44,008 applications during the previous year. Of these, 15,938 applications were detained as not being eligible for various reasons and the remaining 18,282 applications for the advertised vacancies were forwarded to the several appointing officers. The communities to which the applicants belonged is shown in Appendix III.

Statistics relating to vacancies advertised through the Board.—The total number of vacancies advertised through the Board during the year under report, was 2,623, of which 565 were General Vacancies and 2,058 Special Vacancies, reserved only for candidates belonging to Backward Communities. Reports of appointments made were received in respect of 1,613 vacancies (392 General and 1,221 Special Vacancies) and the particulars of appointments made in these vacancies are given below :—

	General Vacancies	Special Vacancies	Total
Brahmins	387	30	417
Others	5	1,191	1,196
Total ...	392	1,221	1,613

The number of candidates appointed during the year in the several departments according to communities is shown in Appendix IV.

Exemptions from the operation of the rules of the Central Recruitment Board.—In 147 cases, exemption from the Central Recruitment Board Rules were permitted during the year under report. Appendix V furnishes particulars in regard to the nature of the exemptions permitted and the circumstances necessitating the appointments of Brahmin candidates in Special Vacancies, are set forth in Appendix VI.

Composition of the establishment of the Public Offices.—The total number of members of various communities in the subordinate ranks of the public service in the different departments and offices as on 30th December 1928 is shown in Appendix VII.

Important Orders issued in connection with recruitment to the subordinate ranks of the public service.—

(1) Orders were passed directing that qualifiied Adikarnataka Candidates available for employment be appointed direct in vacancies in Adikarnataka Schools, without advertising the vacancies.

(2) Instructions were issued for regulating appointments in the tutorial staff of the Mysore University.

(3) Definite instructions were issued in the matter of the preference to be shown to candidates belonging to Depressed Classes in filling up General and Special Vacancies.

(4) Orders were issued deputing the Secretary, Central Recruitment Board, to inspect offices with a view to see whether the rules of recruitment are properly worked. Some of the offices in the Mysore District have accordingly been inspected by that officer.

(5) Having regard to the number of applications received from candidates possessing different standards of qualification for the several classes of vacancies advertised through the Central Recruitment Board, the classification of appointments in the subordinate ranks of the public service and the qualifications for the same were suitably revised.

A list of Government Orders and Circulars issued during the year on various matters relating to recruitment is given in Appendix VIII.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

D. C. SUBBARAYAPPA,

Secretary,

Central Recruitment Board.
